Organization of the Greenwich Total abstinence Society under the Patronage of St Joseph

Meeting opened in due form E. N. Schoutz as chairman the constitution was then read by the Secretary which was then adopted A. P. Williams then gave a few words in explanation of some parts of the constitution & Father Faddigan made some excellent remarks upon the necessity of forming a temperance society after which the following officers were nominated & elected for President, David Donohue for 1st vice President, E. N. Schoutz for 2nd vice President Julian Dudley recording scribe James L. Connisky financial scribe Patrick Moriarty Treasurer A. P. Williams usher Thomas Twoby sentinal Edward Furlong and three trustees for one year the names of the trustees are Rev J. J. Faddigan James Connisky Martin Dudley the officers were then installed in their respective places & the following persons then signed the pledge, David Donohue, James Connisky Patrick Moriarty D. J. Moriarty A. P. Williams Thomas Twoby Thomas Callaghan, E. N. Schoutz it was then communicated to the society that father Faddigan bought the M. E. Church to be moved as soon as possible on our own ground then the society returned ^{him} a vote of thanks for his untiring effort in procuring for us a place of worship meeting then adjourned receipts of the evening $11.00 Dollars James L. Connisky recording scribe

Greenwich total abstinence society
Greenwich April 17th 1870

Meeting opened in due form President in the chair officers absent 2^d vice President & Sentinel minutes of last meeting read & corrected

Edward, Scully, James Crawley, Charles Campbell & Eugene Murphy were then proposed to become members & to take the pledge next meeting it was then moved that the recording scribe be a committee to settle with the sons for the use of hall for the sum of $2.50 which was carried. A. P. Williams then moved that ~~moved that~~ the question of the paper being antichrist be discussed at our next meeting together with some remarks in answer to Judge Cutters lecture

after which the meeting adjourned for one week receipts of the evening $7.50

James Kearns recording scribe
Greenwich total abstinence society

Greenwich, May 4th 1870

meeting opened in due form A. P. Williams acting as president father Fiddigan being present gave us a few good instructions as to how this society should be carried on so as to make it a literary as well as a temperance institution our president being then present acknowledged his violation of the pledge & after a prolonged discourse on the matter by a number of the members present O. Furlong moved that Brother Donohue be reinstated according to the constitution & likewise made another motion to the effect that no person shall belong to this society & belong to any other temperance society in the place at the same time but being out of order the former only was put to vote which was carried Father Fiddigan then moved that the reinstating of brother Donohue be put over untill the next time he came over which was carried Brother Donohue then agreed to take the pledge over the next time the father came over & James Sloan agreed to do the same sign the pledge at the same time

Brother Danohue then said that we ought to see to Brother Schoulty for on Monday last said brother was as drunk as himself & they both drank ^{liquor} from a bottle that Schoulty brought in to his shop

Michael' Moynihan Edward Sautley & James M. then took the pledge after which the meeting then adjourned untill the 15th
